Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

Security Finance Corporation of Spartanburg and its subsidiaries and affiliates. See “Other important information” below for a list of subsidiaries, affiliates and trade names.

What we do

How does Security Finance protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does Security Finance collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you:

- open an account or apply for a loan
- pay your bills or use your debit card
- seek financial or tax advice

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes - information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?

Your choices will apply to everyone on your account unless you tell us otherwise.

Definitions

Affiliates

Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.

- Our affiliates include financial companies involved in consumer finance, income tax preparation, and insurance.

Nonaffiliates

Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.

- Security Finance does not share with nonaffiliates so they can market to you. Security Finance does share, for other purposes, with law enforcement agencies, regulatory authorities and/or others in order to comply with a subpoena, summons or other judicial process.

Joint marketing

A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you.

- Security Finance doesn't jointly market.
